

RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF COMPARATIVE STUDIES
IN RACE AND ETHNICITY

RICSRE External Faculty Fellows 2010-2011

The Research Institute of Comparative Studies in Race and Ethnicity (RICSRE) External Faculty Fellows may be junior or senior faculty, from other universities in the U.S. and around the world, whose research and scholarship focus on race, ethnicity, and culture. The fellowship lasts a full academic year. Fellows should be in residence from September 2010 through June 2011. A stipend of approximately $45,000 is available to help defray expenses for housing and research for the year. Applicants must have a Ph.D. or J.D., teaching experience and must hold a full appointment at another university/ institution at the time of application and during their fellowship year.

We encourage candidates from any area of scholarship to apply for the fellowship. The Research Institute's current affiliated faculty include professors of history, psychology, sociology, political science, education, law, business, philosophy, English, comparative literature, and drama.

Candidates for the External Faculty Fellows program should submit:

1. 2010-2011 External Faculty Fellows application
2. Curriculum Vitae
3. A short (2-3 page) description of your research project
4. Two letters of reference

*Materials must be received no later than February 12, 2010 and should be submitted to:
